Bowling Center and Skills Development take top honors

By Ms. Stephanie Pittman
99th Services Squadron

The Bowling Center and Skills Development Center took Air Combat Command top honors as they were awarded for having the best programs.

"We are excited and honored to be ranked as the best in ACC," said Mr. Phil Ward, Skills Development Center Director.

The Skills Development Center was nominated for running the annual base photo and artist/craftsman contest, conducting the semiannual hobby and craft bazaar, teaming up with the Youth Center to conduct summer classes and creating special Halloween and Thanksgiving ceramics programs.

Their management team showed outstanding efforts. Mr. Gerry Cunningham, Wood and Frame Shop Manager, was selected as the 1998 ACC Handicapped Program award winner. Mr. Mike Davis was selected as Civilian Supervisor of the Quarter for the 99th Air Base Wing. Throughout the year, four other employees were selected as Flight Chief's employees of the quarter and two employees received the Supervisor of the Quarter.

The Bowling Center's accomplishments are comparable. They planned, programmed and executed over $225,000 in renovation projects and equipment purchases.

"It's amazing to see the difference after the renovations were completed," said Mr. Richard Oak, Bowling Center Manager.

The Center's managers hosted the Bowman Tournament and Coca-Cola tournament, which supported youth bowlers throughout Nevada. They also hosted this year's Corporate Challenge bowling tournament, 62 squadron functions and other smaller base tournaments.

The Bowling Center joined with the Youth Center and Child Development Centers to conduct a bowling program for youth in before-and-after-school programs, summer day camps, in-home daycare, Young American Bowling Alliance, and instructional youth leagues. These programs have impacted over 1,000 children.

Family fun is something both facilities offer. The Skills Development Center has family ceramic projects each month and the Bowling Center offers a birthday program where parents can purchase a party package that includes bowling, equipment, food, balloons and tableware for one low price.

It's easy to see why these facilities are the best in ACC, customers always come first.

New golf prices take effect June 1, 2000

The Sunrise Vista Golf Course fees will change on Thursday. The slight increase in price will help counter the rise in course maintenance, which now exceeds one million per year. The golf course is a nonappropriated funded facility, and monies generated pay for course maintenance and employee salaries.

Any questions regarding price increases can be directed to Mr. Leo VanWart, Director of Golf, at 652-2602. Questions regarding course maintenance can be answered by Mr. Danny Fielder, Superintendent at the same number.

Bowling for Bucks strikes again

Roll through another bowling season for an opportunity to win over $3,000 in cash and prizes, including a $500 grand prize at the Nellis Bowling Center. With three different program segments, "Bowling for Bucks," "PinBusters" and "BookBusters," there is a variety of ways for patrons to participate. All three programs begin June 1 and run through July 31.

Bowling for Bucks

Punch cards are issued for nonleague bowling play to those 18 and up. Once ten games of bowling are played and the bowler receives two free games, the card is entered into a monthly drawing to determine twelve finalists to compete for cash and prizes. The Bowling for Bucks card also becomes an entry into the final grand prize drawing for $500 cash.

PinBusters

Youth, up to age 18, are issued a bowling punch card for nonleague bowling play. Once three games of bowling are played and the bowler receives one free game, the card is entered into a monthly drawing to determine twelve finalists who will compete in a roll-off for prizes. The PinBuster card also becomes an entry into the final grand prize drawing for a new bowling ball and bag combo. Gamed cards can be picked up at the Nellis Youth Center or Bowling Center, June 1 through August 31.

BookBusters

This program links youth summer bowling to the library's summer reading program. The program is open to all students entering grades 1 through 12. For every three books youths read or have read to them, they receive one free game of bowling and a chance to win monthly and grand prizes. Punch cards are validated at the base library and Nellis Bowling Center.

Summer care for pets
Just a reminder that heat can kill your pet if it is left in an unshaded yard or car. Dogs cannot sweat and must pant to cool themselves. They can become overheated and dehydrated easily. Provide plenty of cold fresh water and shade. Limit outside time to 30 minutes or less on days the temperature exceeds 100 degrees.

Travel tips
Avoid becoming "pet-rified." If your pet is vacationing with you, carry proof of all vaccinations and make sure the pet has a collar with identification. Most airlines require a health certificate, which is available from the vet office.

Appointments
Appointments are available every Tuesday morning and some Friday mornings. Please call 652-2230 to schedule. If unable to make the scheduled appointment, please call by 4 p.m. the day before to cancel. As a safety measure, no children under 12 are allowed during vet appointments.
